

Vincent Randazzo Joins MyPrint Corp. as Vice President of Strategic Sourcing

(IRVINE, Calif., October 24, 2006) – MyPrint Corporation today announced that Vincent Randazzo has joined the organization as Vice President of Strategic Sourcing.

Randazzo brings to the organization more than 20 years of print production, quality assurance, accounting and senior management experience. A former veteran of I.L. Walker and Ivy Hill, he has senior management experience in sales, production, operations, purchasing and accounting.

Randazzo formerly served as President of ZAP Packaging, Inc., a $15 million print and packaging company based in Brea, Calif., and earned degrees in Business and Accounting from St. Francis College in Brooklyn, N.Y.

“The growth of our print-on-demand software division, eTools, has necessitated the continued development of our management team,” said Kent Barkouras, CEO of MyPrint Corporation. “We are pleased to have such a strong leader with superb qualifications join MyPrint’s senior management team. His experience is essential to our success given the rapid demand and deployment of our print management software solutions.”
