

Scott Brown, Senior Sales Executive, Joins MyPrint Corp. as Southern Regional Director of Sales For eTools Division

(IRVINE, Calif., March, 6, 2007) – MyPrint Corporation today announced that Scott Brown has joined the organization as Southern Regional Director of Sales for eTools, the company's award-winning print management software division.

Brown brings to the organization more than 25 years of experience in sales, sales management and sales training, and has managed global accounts in the food service and distribution industries. Recently, Brown served as senior vice president of Acosta Sales and Marketing and as president of Brown Brokerage. Brown specializes in bringing procurement solutions to major organizations, specifically concentrating on strategic planning and implementation of supply chain solutions. He also has extensive experience in the wholesale food distribution industry.

“As our clients continue to realize extraordinary value with eTools they continue to develop new application ideas for the software,” said Mark Lucas, VP of sales and marketing for eTools. “Scott Brown's vast experience and proven leadership will help our clients turn those ideas into reality in a multitude of vertical markets.”

“As our client base continues to expand rapidly, Scott will make sure that our clients based in the South have the opportunity to utilize eTools,” Lucas added.

“The opportunity for growth of our software division, eTools, has necessitated the continued development of our national sales organization,” said Kent Barkouras, CEO of MyPrint Corporation. “We are pleased to have a leader with Scott's superb qualifications join MyPrint's eTools management team. His experience in food service is essential to our success given the rapid demand and deployment of our print management software solutions throughout this vertical market.”
