

THURSDAY, NOV. 25, 2010

Orange Coast Memorial Center CEO honored

BY BETH HARTNETT
THE ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

Orange Coast Memorial Center CEO Marcia Manker received Farmers & Merchants Bank's second annual "Women of Courage" award last month, recognizing innovative businesswoman throughout Orange County. Manker was one of 13 women honored.

Manker was selected for her dedication to Orange Coast Memorial Center, the only nonprofit hospital in Fountain Valley. "Women of Courage" honorees are selected by the bank's branch managers, who choose one stand-out woman from among their clientele or immediate communities.

"The women on our list have displayed courage in various aspects of life, from running a successful business in a male-dominated industry to battling disease and raising children," said Farmers & Merchants Chairman of the Board Daniel Walker.

From left to right: F&M Bank CEO W. Henry Walker, Newport Beach Woman of Courage Marcia Manker, Credit Analyst for the F&M Newport Beach branch Amal Alkalla, and F&M Vice President Chris-

Farmers & Merchants Bank Executives pose with the bank's 2010 "Women of Courage" honorees. Bottom Row (from left to right): W. Henry Walker (F&M Bank CEO), Ruth Denault, Connie Black, Angela Cortright, Sue Rueb, Claudia Kihano Parker, Pam Lytle, Marty Thompson, Dan Walker (F&M Bank Chairman of the Board) Top Row (from left to right): Christine Walker (F&M Bank VP), Liz Schmidt, Dolores Marikian, Marcia Manker, Suzanne Sotomey, Donna Lee, Patricia Saldivar, Teresa Saldivar, Ken Walker (F&M Bank President).