

Greer's OC
May 12, 2011

OC WEEKEND: A PINK TIE AFFAIR

05.12.11

Share

Like

Tweet 1

Angel Stadium's lush green outfield transforms into an inspirational pink haven as it plays host to the fifth annual Komen Pink Tie Ball Saturday from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. benefiting the Orange County Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure. The black-tie affair brings supporters together of breast cancer awareness to make the commitment to help end breast cancer forever.

Enjoy dining in the outfield, "Angels for Hope" opportunity drawing for prizes such as a watch donated by Black, Starr & Frost valued at $10,000 as well as 10 limited edition commemorative Angels' 50th anniversary baseballs signed by Angel players, dancing, live entertainment and much more.

At the black tie affair you can also enjoy a pink carpet arrival and a sunset champagne reception with appetizers by Bluewater Grill on the stadium terrace. Dinner is catered by The White House of Anaheim, followed by live entertainment and dancing. Silent and live auctions will feature unique experiences and one-of-a-kind treasures, including an exclusive catered culinary adventure, a seven-night stay in Tuscany to explore the delights of Italy, seven nights at a castle in the south of France, a 30 minute ride for two aboard Goodyear blimp and the ultimate shopping adventure from Saks Fifth Avenue at South Coast Plaza.

Tickets for the Pink Tie Ball cost $350 or $3,500 for a table of 10, and entries for the "Angels for Hope" opportunity drawing cost $100. For more information about tickets, or "Angels for Hope" drawing, 714.957.9157 or visit www.komenoc.org.