Chapman University commemorates its 150th birthday; O.C. hotel occupancy improves; Komen O.C.'s Pink Tie Ball set for May 14

“Komen Orange County’s Pink Tie Ball is set for May 14 at Angel Stadium. The fifth annual black tie event raises funds for breast cancer research and local services. The evening’s activities include dining on the outfield and an opportunity drawing. Among the prizes, a $10,000 watch and 10 limited edition Angels 50th anniversary baseballs autographed by the team. For more information, visit komenoc.org.”
