

SUSAN G. KOMEN HONORS NORTH TUSTIN WOMAN

The Orange County Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure honored North Tustin volunteer Ginny Espenship for 20 years of service. Espenship is a breast cancer survivor, former board president, Race chair and member of several leadership committees. She received the Komen Warrior award on Nov. 16 at the Volunteer and Team Captain Appreciation Awards at Hanger 244 at the Great Park in Irvine.

Eight people, two groups of volunteers and others were recognized during the event. Team PIMCO received the Race for the Cure Perpetual Trophy as the top fundraising team.

A shining star award went to Brenda Hardwig of Santa Ana, the outstanding volunteer of the year to Vernelle Blackwell of Westminster, and Ellen Weinstein and Christine Brown of Newport Beach received the outstanding new volunteers award. Shefali Dutt of University High School in Irvine is the outstanding youth volunteer.

Marie Cammack of Fountain Valley and Rebecca Hultquist of Orange were given the Promise of One awards.

Experian of Costa Mesa is the Partner for the Cure and Gap Inc. of Riverside is the outstanding volunteer group.