

Tredway Lumsdaine & Doyle marks 50 years in business

Email This Article

Share This

The law firm's Irvine office will celebrate with a campaign to help O.C.'s Second Harvest Food Bank.

BY SOPHIA GIOIELLO

Published: September 14, 2011 08:30 AM

Tredway Lumsdaine & Doyle LLP, a law firm with four Southern California locations, including an office in Irvine, will celebrate 50 years in business on Sept. 22, with a drive to benefit the Second Harvest Food Bank. In addition to collecting canned food items, which began last Labor Day, monetary donations have been given. Food will be accepted until Sept. 30.

Attorneys at Tredway Lumsdaine & Doyle specialize in an array of practice areas in four offices; the other three are located in Downey, Long Beach and Beverly Hills. The firm has developed strong client relationships with private companies and professionals, including high-net-worth individuals in Southern California.

Harold Tredway founded the company in Downey in 1961, and the firm's continued expansion has resulted in new opportunities and an increasing number of attorneys. Estate-planning attorney W. Bailey Smith was recently added to the firm in last June.

The founding Irvine partner, Mark Doyle, noted that, "While the firm began in Downey and is an active member in that community, we have seen over the past 23 years that Tredway Lumsdaine & Doyle is a perfect fit for Orange County with our focus on closely held companies, successful entrepreneurs and dedication to relationship building."

The firm has helped to support local philanthropic organizations such as The Arc of Orange County and Los Angeles, Susan G. Komen for the Cure, and Share Our Selves.

For more information about Tredway Lumsdaine & Doyle's Second Harvest food drive, call 949.756.0684.