

Treat du Jour

Xan Confections, known for their "guiltlessly indulgent" lifestyle chocolates, tempts our tastebuds and satisfies the soul. Their unique, upscale artisan chocolates contain distinctive flavors and fine, all-natural ingredients.

Combining the things we love about chocolate, with the diet-sensitive and nutrition-conscious ingredients we strive to fill our days with, Xan Confections adds new meaning to the phrase "you are what you eat."

One of our favorite items in Xan's "lifestyle" collection are the Jewel Caramels - non-dairy, gluten-free, vegan caramels encased in dark chocolate. So whether you have sensitivity to gluten or live a vegan lifestyle, we can all indulge!

It gets even better, not only are the Jewel Caramels sensitive to our diets, but they've even managed to appeal to our gourmet tastebuds. These treats offer unique taste sensations with every bite: alderwood smoked salt and just a zap of heat from the Ancho Chili Jewel; a burst of fresh raspberries and buttery tasting caramel in the Raspberry Jewel; and many more, including Espresso Almond, Bananas Foster and Coconut Pecan.
