TWO NEW AGENTS JOIN COSTA MESA'S TORELLI REALTY

Costa Mesa, Calif., Dec. 17, 2009 – Torelli Realty, an independent real estate company focused on buyers and sellers almost exclusively in Costa Mesa, Calif., added Jim Fisler and Roger Turk to its staff of professional real estate agents.

“Torelli Realty continues to be a success during these challenging economic times because of our impressive team of real estate pros,” said Valerie Torelli, founder and president of Torelli Realty. “As the demand for Costa Mesa real estate remains relatively high, we continue to expand our company to exceed client expectations. Within the last three months, we’ve happily welcomed six new agents, including Jim Fisler and Roger Turk, the most recent team additions. We’re very motivated by the constant expansion of our sales team and feel that Jim and Roger will strengthen our ability to service our clients in the best way possible.”

Jim Fisler joins Costa Mesa’s Torelli Realty as a real estate agent with more than five years of experience. He also serves as vice president of Mesa Consolidated Water District’s board of directors and previously served as vice-chair of the Planning Commission for the City of Costa Mesa and as Parks and Recreation commissioner. As a 40-year resident of Costa Mesa, Fisler supports community service and provides his wealth of city knowledge to all of his clients.

Torelli Realty also welcomes real estate agent Roger Turk to its sales team. Turk has worked in the real estate and mortgage lending industry since 2001. He owns a mortgage lending company and prior to joining Torelli Realty, worked as president of a private real estate firm. As a resident of Costa Mesa for more than 10 years, Turk is actively involved in the community, including youth sports organizations such as Costa Mesa’s AYSO and the National Little League Board.
